Wholesale Catalogue

Hello!

Welcome to Lovely Paper Stuff; where the colours are loud, the cards are cheeky, and "playing it safe" has never really been part of the plan.

Founded by illustrator and designer Jo Denning, Lovely Paper Stuff was created for people who want greeting cards that feel a little different; not the usual predictable captions or polite florals, but bold, playful designs with much personality - the kind that makes people laugh, groan, or dramatically roll their eyes before showing everyone else.

Each card starts life as one of Jo's hand-drawn illustrations, fuelled by (probably too much) chocolate, an obsession over colour and an ongoing mission to create great (and terrible) puns! Inspired by classic British humour, awkward moments and an unhealthy love of wordplay, Lovely Paper Stuff cards are made for those who can appreciate a drop of sarcasm, cheeky humour and don't mind something a little cringeworthy.

Lovely Paper Stuff cards wave from the shelves; they stand out for all the right reasons (and not the wrong ones!). They come on a quality 350gsm sustainable board, coloured on BOTH the inside and outside - and the envelope is individually selected to work with each card. Forget the presents, it's all about the (Lovely Paper Stuff) card!

When Jo's not in her studio designing, she is usually working as 'argument coordinator' to her three lovely children. When her 'mum hat' is off, she particularly likes to go to Bryan Adams concerts (yes, he is still going), doing the occasional escape room (badly) or forever doom scrolling Netflix for something to watch before giving up and watching a repeat from 2010.

So welcome to the wonderfully silly, colourful world of Lovely Paper Stuff; where beige is banned, envelopes matter way more than they probably should, and boring cards just simply don't feature.
